The Peedie
ORKNEY FOODIES
Guide 2019/20

WELCOME TO THE PEEDIE ORKNEY FOODIES GUIDE 2019/20

Orkney is famed the world over for its wonderful food and drink, with many of our larger local producers and famous flagship brands successfully representing the islands in national and international marketplaces.

But Orkney is also home to an incredible range of much smaller (or peedie) food and drink businesses, all equally proud of their carefully crafted, high quality produce. There are also numerous hotels, cafes, restaurants and delicatessens offering the very best of Orkney food and drink, along with top class customer service.

From chutney and cheese to bere meal and bakery goods, the sheer diversity of fabulous food and drink available from our peedie producers and providers means you'll never run out of new things to try (and hopefully buy) during your stay in the islands.

Keep this free guide with you throughout your visit and use the information in it to seek out different ways that you can get hold of the wide range of Peedie Orkney Foodie delights out there.

Eat, drink, be merry and remember to come back again. You're always welcome.

RENDALL'S BAKERY

Rendall's Bakery, located in Kirkwall close to the Papdale Primary School, began in 1979. George Rendall's father John, who lived on the island of Westray working at Brown's Bakery, moved into Kirkwall and started up his own business. When he retired, the running of the business was taken over by George and his wife Ruth, who have since been joined by their own children Katie and Greg.

SMALL LOCAL PRODUCERS

The sheer variety of small food and drink producers in Orkney is staggering. Each offers something unique to the market, but they are all united by a common desire to maintain the reputation of Orkney for distinctive, high quality produce. They also share a love of interacting with customers and telling their product's story.

EVIEDALE BAKEHOUSE

Orkney's Sourdough bakery, Eviedale Bakehouse, champions sourdough bread, healthy 'Real Bread', making hand shaped artisan loaves using the finest organic stone-ground flour. Our customers are loving it and we are now supplying many local shops in and around the Orkney Mainland and Islands. Why not also visit our bistro and try our unique sourdough Napoli style pizza baked in the most northerly wood fired pizza oven in the UK. Based in the heart of Evie Village, on the west mainland of Orkney.

GREENTOFT FARM PRODUCE

Thelma Bruce has been a regular fixture at the Orkney Farmers' Markets for the past 14 years. She started off selling free-range eggs from her family's farm in the parish of Deerness, before using the surplus to expand into home-baking. Now Thelma makes and sells everything from lemon curd and jams, to shortbread, cakes, scones, rock buns, fatty cutties and bere bannocks. Her traditional Orkney baking has proved enormously popular throughout Orkney.

GRIMBISTER FARM CHEESE

Hilda Seator founded this small cheese-making business at Grimbister Farm in the parish of Firth. Her daughter Anne now runs things, with the well-regarded farmhouse cheese now seen on fine food wholesale lists and restaurant cheese boards throughout the UK. The cheese is made from local milk, and has a firm, soft, crumbly texture. A fresh cheese, it has a delicate flavour when new, developing a lemony tang after a few days.

PEEDIE KIRKWALL CAKES

Peedie Kirkwall Cakes began its cake journey in 2013 with me, Marie Logan, after redundancy from my business banking career helped me make the decision to do something I enjoy. I'm completely self taught and have loved every challenge each cake has given me. It has been an absolute pleasure being involved in so many special occasions in Orkney from weddings to christenings, birthdays to cake replicas for businesses. I have loved making every single one!
